LABOR DELEGATES TO BE HOME ON HOLIDAY

American Federation of Laborers Samuel Gompers as President—Next Meeting to be at Philadelphia.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 24.—A desire to be home for Thanksgiving dinner has caused most of the American Federation of Labor delegates who adjourned their convention Saturday to leave Seattle. Ten members of the executive council will meet today to take up urgent business referred to it by the convention. It is expected that most of the council members will go with President Gompers to California to assist in settling the strike of the Pacific Gas and Electric company, involving the two wings of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The most important subject to come before the building trades department of the Federation, which was to meet today, is the war just declared by the Federation and the Bricklayers, Plasterers and Plasterers' unions, which are not affiliated with the Federation, and who have signed a contract with the Marble Dealers' association that infringes upon the rights of the marble workers.

The convention of the federation settled a large number of jurisdictional disputes which had troubled the building trades.

Gompers is Re-elected.

Philadelphia was selected as the 1914 meeting place before the convention adjourned Saturday. The convention will assemble on the second Monday in November. Officers were elected as follows:

President, Sam Gompers; first vice president, James Duncan; second vice president, James O'Connell; third vice president, Joseph Hayes; fourth vice president, Joseph Valente; fifth vice president, John R. Alpine; sixth vice president, H. E. Perham; seventh vice president, John P. ### PRaises AMERICANS AND THE PRESIDENT

Praise was given Woodrow Wilson by Rev. father Edward Barry during the course of his sermon at the Church of the Immaculate Conception Sunday morning. During the course of his sermon, he said:

"The United States of America is the greatest nation on earth. Its people are the most intelligent, the most highly educated, the most patriotic. The president of this nation is the greatest civil ruler on the earth today."

"To be a good Catholic is to be a good American. The better Catholic one is the better American. Then demonstrate your patriotism by coming to church Thursday morning at 8:30 and giving thanks to God that you are Americans and that you have such a nation, such a president."

Dr. T. C. Hiff, of Denver, will lecture in Trinity Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock on "Mormonism a Menace to the Nation." The lecture is free and no collection will be taken.
